

CHANTAL & MAX

“For us, luxury is giving our clients access to experiences the ordinary traveler does not have access to....”

Custom Made Itineraries

Discover Switzerland like few have seen it with our bespoke private itineraries which will take you through the country's most diverse and striking regions at the pace that you enjoy.

Being locals ourselves, you'll experience our best kept secrets, far from the mainstream tourist map, without missing on any of the essentials.

Noteworthy Hotels

Our hotels vary from the most typical of chalets to properties that have completely escaped the ordinary, without overlooking the truly unique boutique hotels with views you'll never forget. We don't work with any big hotels where you're just a room number, we only work with the exceptional "gems" that we've seen and experienced ourselves.

Private “Un-googable” Activities

The cherry on any trip:
exclusive access to our own curated selection of hand-picked private experiences and guided day tours that are sure to take you off the mainstream tourist map.

From the alphorn to watch-making,
from dog sledding to making your own cheese to take home,
without forgetting wine and cow-bell making,
and everything in between.
Local expertise is our craft.

En route, you'll have the option of visiting a local cheese-maker in his private workshop, immersing yourself in the local art of Scherrenschnitte, or perhaps you'll give chocolate making a try alongside Switzerland's most talented chocolatier, taste the local wine in a family-owned winery, and enjoy a fondue in a jaw-dropping, exclusive setting amidst the UNESCO-protected vineyards overlooking Lake Geneva and the French Alps...

La Provence

A region close to our hearts, so much that we even chose it to be our wedding venue in 2018.

We've spent countless weeks here together every year and can't wait to show you the gems that have us coming back time and time again...

COMING SOON

Dear traveller,

To briefly introduce ourselves, we're two proud Swiss natives with a five-star hospitality background, here to guide you, inspire you and show you the true spirit of Switzerland. We've seen all of our hand-picked hotels, tested all of our immersive experiences, hiked all the hikes and travelled to all the destinations we've curated just for you.

We're not like most travel companies, nor do we want to be: we don't want to be the biggest, we want to be the best at what we do. We don't work with any pre-set packages, because we firmly believe that for a trip to be special, it has to be as individual as you are. That's why we especially value our person to person approach.

One of the biggest compliments we've received from our clients is that they didn't feel like they were calling a travel agency, but more like friends in a country giving recommendations. And we hope you'll find that in us too for your next trip to Switzerland.

"A bientôt",

Chantal & Max

What our Travellers Say

“When you visit a country where you know someone, you see that country like no tourist would ever see it. You see places and things perhaps known only to local residents and you hear the stories of what they know about their homeland and growing up there. Because of Chantal and Max, this is the kind of experience we had on our Swiss Journey. A most memorable, unmatched time.”

-Rashida & Frank, USA-

“It was an exceptional experience. We stayed in hotels and locations that we would not have found on our own. It was seamless and a most memorable trip for all of us.

We would highly recommend Chantal & Max.”

-Sarah, USA-

“The hotels and activities were wonderful and felt exclusive. We very rarely had to deal with bus-loads of tourists and enjoyed interacting more with the locals to get a better idea of life in Switzerland rather than just checking things-to-see of a list. I wish we could find a team like yourselves for every one of our holidays!”
